Anna Maria Island

Island Luxury

Thanks to its enviable location, Mainsail Beach Inn offers a one-of-a-kind Florida beachfront resort experience. The resort makes the most of Anna Maria Island's unique fusion of nature's wonders, outdoor recreation and Old Florida coastal charm – the best of life along Florida's timeless Gulf coast. The island is a charming little beach town, secluded from the outside world, with white sand beaches, lush tropical landscapes, and stunning turquoise gulf waters.

Anna Maria Island is located 50 miles south of Tampa and seven miles west of Bradenton, just 30 minutes from Sarasota-Bradenton International Airport.

Accommodations

Built in 2009, Mainsail Beach Inn offers guests a superb island experience with beachfront accommodations on Anna Maria Island.

The Inn is comprised of 12 upscale two- and three-bedroom residences, each with its own balcony or deck and most with beachfront access. All units come standard with gourmet kitchens and professional appliances, hardwood floors, molding, elegant furnishings and fine linens, flat-screen plasma televisions, DVD players, sound systems and high-speed internet access.

Amenities

Mainsail Beach Inn's amenities include a private sundeck with a heated, resort-style pool and hot tub, as well as a gazebo with an outdoor kitchen, grill, beach chairs and umbrellas for guest use.

Mainsail's nearby sister property, Waterline Villas & Marina features a 50-slip marina accommodating vessels up to 50 feet in length and available for daily, weekly or monthly rentals. The marina is just a short, beautiful stroll from the island's exclusive restaurants and retail shops. Boat rentals and fishing guides are also available.

Out and About

Using the complimentary island trolley, guests of Mainsail Beach Inn can easily navigate the island, visiting award-winning restaurants and unique shops, or setting out on an adventure, without ever having to use their cars.

From rustic beachside pubs to elegant restaurants illuminated by starlight and candlelight, meals are memories to be savored on Anna Maria Island. The destination is home to charming cafes and bistros, each with its own individual flavor. The neighboring award-winning Beach Bistro is known for using the freshest ingredients and offering spectacular Gulf views.

Surrounded by the Gulf of Mexico and Tampa Bay, guests can enjoy endless water sports activities nearby, including snorkeling, scuba diving, jet skiing, canoeing, kayaking and parasailing. Back on land, visitors can jog and bike along the Holmes Beach shore.

Shops on the island present colorful resort attire, elegant wear for special occasions, amusing t-shirts, and other souvenirs such as jewelry (shell and elegant), and even antiques.
